All Participants at an Initiative Event are required to observe this code of conduct (the “Code”).

The Initiative is dedicated to providing a harassment-free event experience for everyone and we do not tolerate harassment of Participants in any form. Participants will ensure all communication is appropriate for a professional audience including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Participants will refrain from using language or behaviour that could be considered offensive or discriminatory. Participants will commit to be kind to others and assume the best.

Participants violating this Code may be asked to leave the Initiative Event, at the sole discretion of the Initiative.
